Overview

Cybersecurity and Data Privacy Attorney Guiding Clients Through Complex State, Federal, and Global Compliance

Carly Rothstein is an Associate at Mandelbaum Barrett PC, with a practice spanning cybersecurity and data privacy, healthcare law, and litigation. She counsels healthcare providers and business entities on the full spectrum of privacy and security matters, including compliance with the GDPR, CCPA, HIPAA, the New York SHIELD Act, and other state and federal privacy laws. She has experience guiding clients through all phases of data security incidents—from initial investigation and notifications to regulatory compliance and litigation risk management—and brings a practical, solutions-oriented approach to highly time-sensitive matters.

Carly also represents clients in a range of disputes, including commercial litigation, healthcare litigation, and privacy litigation. She is actively involved in all phases of litigation, including pleadings, motion practice, and discovery, and supports case strategy through detailed legal research and analysis.

Carly earned her J.D. from the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, where she served as Editor in Chief of the Cardozo Arts and Entertainment Law Journal. During law school, she worked with the Filmmakers Legal Clinic, advising independent, social-justice-oriented filmmakers on transactional, intellectual property, and First Amendment matters. She received her B.A., summa cum laude, in History and Psychology from the University of Alabama. She is admitted to practice in New York and is a member of the New York City Bar Association's Technology, Cyber, and Privacy Law Committee.
