Overview

Lisa Factor Fox is Of Counsel to the Firm and concentrates in the areas of Trusts and Estates and tax-exempt organizations. Lisa's Trusts and Estates practice focuses on the preparation of wills and trusts, as well as the structuring and implementation of sophisticated estate and transfer tax plans for entrepreneurs and high-net-worth individuals, including plans for family wealth transfer and philanthropic purposes. Her practice also includes the management of estate and gift tax examinations, and all other aspects of complex estate and trust administration. Her tax-exempt organizations practice includes the representation of private foundations from formation through dissolution, monitoring compliance with state and federal regulations, advising on administrative matters (with particular emphasis on grant-making activities), and analyzing annual foundation information returns.
