Overview

Vincent J. Roldan is a Partner in the Firm's Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights and Banking and Financial Services groups, which were named a finalist for Banking and Financial Firm of the Year by the New Jersey Law Journal in 2025. He has represented parties in interest in various aspects of bankruptcy proceedings and out of court workouts across the U.S. He also represents clients in non-bankruptcy litigation in state and federal courts on various tort, contract, intellectual property and collection matters. He is a frequent speaker and published writer with respect to restructuring, commercial bankruptcy and distressed investing.

Mr. Roldan served as a law clerk to the Honorable Lewis M. Killian, Jr., United States Bankruptcy Judge for the Northern District of Florida. Mr. Roldan received his B.A. from the University of Michigan and his J.D. from Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law.

Mr. Roldan serves on the boards of the Asian Pacific American Lawyers Association of New Jersey and the Secured Finance Network. He previously served for two years on the board of the National Asian Pacific American Bar Association, is a past president of the Filipino American Lawyers Association of New York, and a founding member of the National Filipino American Lawyers Association. He is also a member of the Asian American Bar Association of New York, where he founded the Bankruptcy and Restructuring Committee.

In recognition of his contributions, he received the inaugural Impact Award for Leadership in DEI from Secured Finance Network (2024) and was named New Jersey Law Journal's Diverse Attorney of the Year (2023).
