Overview

Combining deep knowledge in personal injury, workers' compensation, and municipal court matters, Jeffrey E. Grabelle brings a comprehensive perspective to representing clients in complex claims, litigation, and dispute resolution across New Jersey.

Jeffrey E. Grabelle is Counsel to the Firm and handles a wide range of matters, concentrating his practice on Workers' Compensation, Personal Injury, and Municipal Court matters.

Jeff has represented accident victims in resolution of their personal injury and worker's compensation claims and successfully litigated complex insurance coverage cases, representing both plaintiffs and defendants. He has recovered millions of dollars in bodily injury and workers' compensation settlements and litigated hundreds of negligence and workers' compensation matters in the Superior Court of New Jersey and the Workers' Compensation courts. He also has represented many accident victims in resolution of their personal injury and workers' compensation claims as well as litigated complex insurance coverage cases representing both mandatory Superior Court Arbitration and private arbitrations. Jeff also frequently appears in municipal court on matters such as defense of drunk driving, assault and battery, as well as motor vehicle violation matters.
